TO : SAC, MINNEAPOLIS (164-73)(P)

DATE: 11/7/72

FROM : SA [REDACTED]

SUBJECT: NORJAK

RE: BRADLEY E. AYERS

Washington County Sheriff WESTPHAL, Stillwater, Minnesota, confidentially advised that he had received information to the effect that BRADLEY AYERS, who resides 2933 Manning Avenue North, Lake Elmo, Minnesota, could possibly be considered a suspect in this case. AYERS formerly served with the CIA and has a background of parachuting. AYERS is described as follows:

Name	BRADLEY E. AYERS
Residence	Route #1, Lake Elmo, Minnesota
Date of Birth	March 7, 1935
Height	5'8"
Weight	160 pounds
Date appointed	March, 1970
Occupation	Commercial pilot; Bradley E. and Lee Ayers Insurance Company 2933 Manning Avenue North Lake Elmo, Minnesota

[REDACTED] Ramsey County Sheriff's Office, advised that in September, 1971, AYERS was a very strong suspect [REDACTED]

He had a very strong case against AYERS but when AYERS was to appear in a show-up to be witnessed by the victim, he left the area and was later found to be in the State of Florida. [REDACTED] stated that investigation fairly well established that AYERS was in Florida in November, 1971, when NORJAK occurred. However, positive proof has not been obtained as yet.

A good photograph and a very detailed resume of the [REDACTED] involving AYERS is in the possession of the Ramsey County Prosecutor's office. The case was being handled by [REDACTED] assistant prosecuting attorney [REDACTED]. A background investigation was conducted concerning AYERS, who apparently participated in the Bay of Pigs Invasion and other CIA sponsored activities.

In regard to his limp, which was quite noticeable, [] indicated he had hurt his ankles in an accident near Des Moines, Iowa, on December 24, 1971, which had been investigated by a [] of the Des Moines, Iowa, Police Department. He stated, which he later refuted, he had been driving at that time a 1969 Dodge Polara, a State vehicle, which was involved in the accident. [] later refuted this to say that this was not the incident which hurt his ankles; however, he had hurt his ankles approximately five to six months ago in Des Moines, Iowa, when he had parachuted from an aircraft piloted by [] Municipal Airport, Mason City, Iowa. [] stated in regard to his parachuting experience he had parachuted for the military and since leaving the military he had parachuted several times as an amateur with police officer of Cerro Gordo County and police officers of Mason City, Iowa.

In response to several questions by Special Agent [] exhibited a good knowledge of aircrafts and parachuting techniques to the extent that how you would lower your landing gear and drop full flaps in order to slow an aircraft down to a landing speed and other semi-technical terminology which a person familiar with aircraft and parachuting techniques would use. [] stated one would be a fool for jumping from an aircraft over 10,000 feet and would be a fool to come out of an aircraft above 170 to 200 miles per hour as he might be caught in the air stream and be dashed against the fuselage of the aircraft.

b6

[] indicated he had sold his former residence, [] Des Moines, Iowa, and had made an undisclosed amount of money from the sale. He further indicated he was divorced; however, he declined to mention his ex-wife's name or whereabouts.

b6
b7C

In regard to his hurt ankles, [] stated he had seen a doctor, name not recalled, at the VA (Veterans Administration) Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, on March 30, 1972, at 9:30 a.m. He provided a slip which verified the place and date as an outpatient.

[REDACTED] - INFORMANT

[REDACTED] was interviewed by SA [REDACTED] at his residence at Seabeck, Washington. He advised he is acquainted with [REDACTED] having contacted him after seeing an ad in the local Seattle area newspapers requesting information from DIB. COOPER. [REDACTED] stated that after observing the ad, he ran an ad of his own in the local Breckenridge newspaper in an effort to obtain business for his [REDACTED]. He stated the ad he ran read, "D.B. Cooper have 2 1/2 acre tract. Will defer downpayment." Based on this ad, he received a number of telephone calls, most of which he felt were from pranksters. He stated however, he did receive one telephone call one night at approximately 1:00 AM, and felt that because of the time of the call, and the fact that he could hear no background noise to indicate the call came from a tavern, he felt that this call had some validity.

He stated he recognized the voice of the caller as an individual known to him and instructed the caller to phone him back the next day, however, he did not receive a return call. Concerning the identity of this individual, [REDACTED] stated he does not desire to disclose his identity as he feels that this individual will contact him in an effort to invest the $200,000 through investment channels which are open to [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that he does not feel that it is surprising he has not been contacted previously concerning this investment inasmuch as the appropriate time for investments is between June and August, and he feels that this individual will recontact him during this time in an effort to have the money invested.

He stated he feels he can invest this money or it can be invested through him, rather than the individual with the money depositing it or washing it himself, inasmuch as he [] handles large quantities of cash. Concerning the identity of the individual, he stated that he feels he is a former Boeing employee and also has had dealings with Northwest Airlines and has a grudge against both companies.

b7C

After he received the call from this individual he contacted [] and advised [] of his interest in locating COOPER. He telephonically contacted [] and then personally contacted him while on a business trip to Los Angeles. He stated he believes this was in early to mid-February, 1972. After these contacts he contacted [] on several occasions concerning COOPER and he was contacted by [] when [] was in Seattle in late 2/72. He stated that he does not know the purpose of [] trip to Seattle and he believes [] made the trip by himself. He stated that he thinks possibly the purpose of the trip was in connection with [] acquiring antiques, in which he is interested. While [] was in Seattle, he met with him at the Edgewater Inn to discuss their mutual interest in locating COOPER and had lunch with him. During the afternoon they went to Sea-Tac where the area was viewed by [] and then they went out for dinner at the Windjammer that evening. He stated this was the extent of dealings with [] in Seattle and he did not introduce [] to anyone or put him in contact with anyone in Seattle at any time.

b6
b7C

[] stated he feels he can identify COOPER through having money invested through him and he can sell the story and also furnish the information to the FBI.

b6
b7C

Concerning the identity of the individual who contacted him, [] was advised that inasmuch as it appeared from information he furnished, that he had information which dealt with a Federal violation, it was possible he could be subpoenaed before a Grand Jury concerning this information. He stated he did not desire this because of his political aspirations within Kitsap County and if he were served with a subpoena, he would have his attorney fight the matter so that he would not have to testify or could delay testimony as long as possible.

b6
b7C

SE 164-81

[] stated he plans on contacting his attorney and apprising him of the situation and following this will contact the FBI as to what his attorney advises him concerning his obligations to furnish information.

b6
b7C

During the course of the conversation, [] on several occasions indicated that during his dealings in attempting to locate COOPER, he became somewhat scared because of the [] and he did not want to become involved in a [] of this type and be prosecuted as a result.

At about 8:05 p.m., 4/22/72, ASAC [REDACTED] Seattle Office, telephonically advised the writer of the following:

[REDACTED] received a call from SA [REDACTED] at about 6:00 p.m., 4/22/72. SA [REDACTED] mentioned the son of [REDACTED] and said father was in New York City and would not be back until Wednesday, 4/26/72.

[REDACTED] called the Bureau and was advised by Assistant Director CHARLES W. The purpose of this would be to determine the identity of the person he interviewed in Seattle, together with details of the interview.

[REDACTED] stated he is preparing a teletype setting forth the reasons why Seattle believes [REDACTED] is identical with [REDACTED]

At approximately 9:00 p.m., 4/22/72, SA [REDACTED] was advised of the above.
